

SECTION 1: BUILDING COMMUNITY

The church in southern Africa and indeed in many parts of the world, is experiencing the call to become a communion of communities. This is the version towards which we are striving as we unfold and realise our pastoral plan “Community Serving Humanity.”

The following Lumko Programmes offer pastoral workers practical ways for discovering together with parishioners new insights into the nature of the Christian community, as well as practical methods for bringing these insights into reality.

Workshop for men – against the Abuse of women VIDEO!

The 15 min video has been specially made for Lumko Institute by award-winning producer Norman Milburn, and is presented by Patrick Mofokeng. It consists of three awareness sessions which are designed to be used with groups of men. They are encouraged to talk about their masculinity and power, and come to understand why so many men abuse women both verbally and physically.

Each of the three modules is accompanied by questions for discussion.

Module 1: what is man?

Module 2: where do you fir in?

Module 3: tigers don't cry.

SECTION 2: SOCIAL AWARENESS

As members of Christian communities develop and deepen their understanding of the Gospel and the mission of the church, they come to realise they have a responsibility for the advancement of the world in which they live.

In modern times this was summed up by Pope Paul VI who wrote: “Between evangelization and human advancement- development and liberation- there are in fact profound links” (Evangelii Nuntiandi, #31). The following kits and books offer programmes leading to practical action.

Code	Title	Language	Price
001K	GOD RENEWS THE WORLD THROUGH US This kit contains awareness sessions designed to lead the Christian community to consider their responsibility for the neighbourhood and the world in which they live. These sessions can be used as liturgies of the world, even on Sundays.	E	R80.00
